Have you ever had an equivalent accreditation under the WHS Act or Regulations or the WHS law of another state, territory or the Commonwealth refused, suspended or cancelled? This relates to high risk work accreditations only, not any other type of licence.

Yes No (If yes, provide details)

Are you or have you been disqualified from applying for a similar high risk work accreditation?

Yes No (If yes, provide details)

Section 4. Evidence of currency

In order to renew your accreditation, you will be required to show evidence of currency in the industry. This can be evidenced by either:

- the completion of 9 assessments per accreditation class in the preceding three years, or
- evidence of 35 hours of operational experience per accreditation class in the preceding three years (using a combination of evidence e.g. hours of operation, training experience, trainer/assessor experience).

Upon receipt of your application, WHSQ will review assessment records to determine the number of completed assessments. If the required number of assessments have not been completed, a letter will be issued to you requesting further information.

Section 5. Evidence of current high risk work licence

In order to renew your accreditation, you will be required to provide evidence that you currently hold a valid high risk work licence for the classes you are seeking to renew. Condition 39 of the Conditions of accreditation as an assessor for high risk work classes states that the assessor must only conduct assessments in the HRW licence class for which they hold assessor accreditation. Evidence of a current High Risk Work licence for the classes you are seeking to renew is required.

Section 6. Checklist

- I have enclosed the relevant fee (see Section 8 Fee)
- I have enclosed a certified colour copy (front and back) of my current high risk work licence
- I have enclosed a certified colour copy (front and back) of my current driver's licence or proof of age card
- I have enclosed evidence of:
 - 9 assessments per accreditation class in the preceding three years (this is only required for interstate assessors that hold multiple accreditations and have not conducted assessments in Queensland but have in another jurisdiction), or
 - 35 hours of operational experience per accreditation class in the preceding three years (using a combination of evidence e.g. hours of operation, training experience, assessor experience). This is only required where evidence of 9 assessments cannot be sent.
- I have enclosed 1 passport quality photograph (this is required for interstate HRW licence holders only, for the issuing of a new HRW Assessor card)
- I have completed and signed the renewal form

Section 7. Declaration by applicant

- It is an offence under the WHS Act to provide false or misleading information when applying for accreditation as an assessor.
- Section 271 of the WHS Act permits the release of information by WHSQ as the regulator that is necessary for the recognition of authorisations under a corresponding WHS law or is required for the exercise of a power or function under a corresponding WHS law. The release of your contact details on the WHSQ website will enable your details as an accredited assessor to be made available to RTO's.
- Make sure you read and understand the declaration before you sign.

Assessor renewing the accreditation: I declare that:

- The information supplied in this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
- None of the information supplied by me in this application or in any other documents attached to or submitted in support of this application is false or misleading.
