

Form 105

Application to become an approved trainer to deliver Work Health and Safety Officer (WHSO) course

V15.04.19

Work Health and Safety Act 2011

To help you in completing this form, please refer to the Conditions of agreement as an authorised RTO of Work Health and Safety Officer (WHSO) training. If you require further information please call 1300 362 128.

Background

The requirement of a Work Health and Safety Officer (WHSO) to undertake a course of training is outlined in the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (WHS Act). The WHS Act provides the WHSO training must be provided through a course of training that is approved by Workplace Health and Safety Queensland (WHSQ).

The terms and conditions on which the Regulator for work health and safety in Queensland agrees to grant authority to the registered training organisation (RTO) to provide WHSO training and assessment in Queensland is set out in the Conditions of agreement as an authorised RTO of Work Health and Safety Officer (WHSO) course (the Conditions).

Guide for applicants

Work health and safety qualification

To become an approved trainer to deliver the WHSO course, you are required to hold a minimum Certificate IV in Work Health and Safety or Diploma of Work Health and Safety. Equivalent or higher level qualifications may be accepted, where the units of competency can be mapped to Certificate IV or Diploma of Work Health and Safety and demonstrate the equivalent or higher level of acquired knowledge. Qualifications of this nature would need to be submitted to WHSQ for consideration.
